

Work From Home (WFH) Policy

1. Employees may request to work from home due to personal or health reasons.
2. WFH requests should be approved at least one day in advance by the reporting manager.
3. Employees must be available online during official working hours.
4. All company data and systems must be accessed securely from approved devices.
5. Performance and productivity expectations remain unchanged.